

From: David Gibson
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 8:58am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

If, I write software, comparable to Windows and I have a similar Internet access program, then I expect to put it's icon on to the computer desktop. If it offends or is not going to be used, then delete it from the desktop. The software program for MSIE doesn't take up that much room. At one time, years ago, I ran Netscape and paid for it too. This whole thing is becoming a farce.

Dave Gibson
Scottsdale, AZ